

ZE-926
ZE-936

ZE-926, ZE-936 The Hummingbird doorknob by R&E; 1880. The detail & composition of these knobs is simply stunning. Our molds taken directly from the originals. ZE-926 Entrance knob 2 5/8" dia and projects 2".

ZE-936 Passage knob: 2 1/4" dia and projects 1 7/8". Note the details on the side of the knob. Shown in the 1870 cataloge with ZE-561 doorplate

In rare cases, larger keyholes will be required, in our backplates, to fit some lock keys. This will require the slight filing of slightly larger keyholes. We make our backplates exactly as found. It is the installer's responsibility to file larger keyholes. This is a Craftsman's function.

ZE-522 Larger backplate by R&E. Pat Jan 25, 1870. Shown in 1870 catalog w/-ZE-26 doggie knob nice with all. 8 1/2" x 2 5/8" wide Center of knob to center of the 1st keyhole round bit: 2 1/4" & to the 2nd keyhole: 4" It can use our lock L-9 (1st keyhole) or a combination of L-6 and L-74 for the 2nd keyhole.

ZE-100

ZE-100 Two Bird's doorknob by R&E; 1879 Ours is molded directly from the antique. Pat 11,226 by R. Christensen in the (Aesthetic) Japanese style. 2 1/8" diameter and projects 2". Fine. ZE-100 is an arbitrary number since no catalog survives to show it, but we have the patents to prove it's origin.

ZE-971

ZE-971 Flying Bird doorknob by R&E; 1879 Ours is molded directly from an original. Pat 11,227 by R. Christensen in the (Aesthetic) Japanese style. 2 1/4" diameter and projects 2". Lovely and rare

ZE-811

ZE-811 Japanese motif (Aesthetic School) full frontal oriental lady character doorknob by R&E. Ours is taken directly from the original. 2 1/4" dia & 2" tall (Design Pat: # 11,191 by H.E. Russel, Jr. May 13, 1879). Note that the parasol is concave with radiating un-equal lines. It appears the knob is demanding attention. Even the R&E signature is duplicated on the back of the knob.

ZE-810

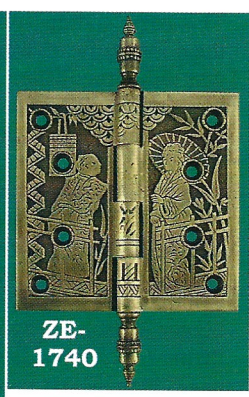

ZE-810 In our opinion, the finest Aesthetic door-plate ever created. An R&E triumph. A Kimono lady, in a very oriental setting, with bamboo & oriental tea house shaped plate. Add any of the Aesthetic knobs and you have the best anyone has to offer in Aesthetic hardware. 8 1/2" tall x 2 1/2" wide Center of knob to center of the 1st keyhole round bit: 2 1/2". We created our lock L-102 just for this plate & ZE-546.

ZE-983 Cannot get more Aesthetic than this favorite Japanese flower motif knob by R&E, Circa 1885. Super !! 2 3/8" dia & projects 2"

ZE-1740 Fantastic 4.5" x 4.5", R&E oriental scene hinge. Lost Wax. They don't come better. What a suite the three matching pieces are !!

ZE-25 Lion doorknob by MCCC/R&E. Popular opinion, amongst collectors, is that this large lion knob is more rare and more collectable than the Doggy Doorknob. It was amongst the first four original patents by Kreuzinger. (Pat: 4097) Ours is taken directly from the original. A great large knob: 2 7/8" diameter and projects 3". Nice deep relief.

ZE-561 Tall & narrow backplate by R&E. Catalog VII dated: 1887 9 1/2" x 2" Center of knob to center of the 1st keyhole round bit: 2 1/4" & to the 2nd keyhole: 4" It can use our lock L-9 (1st keyhole) or a combination L-6 & L-74 for the 2nd keyhole. Often shown with ZE-926/936

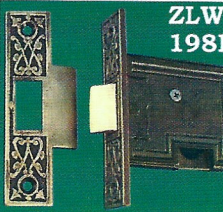

ZE-1740

ZE-963
ZE-973

The rarest Aesthetic doorknobs by R&E; Note the use of various aesthetic design elements including the sun-flower to give a very pleasant affect. Usually used with backplate: ZE-810.

ZE-963 Larger entrance knob 2 3/8" dia and projects 2". ZE-973 Passage knob: 2 1/8" dia and projects 1 7/8". Great design by R.E. Christensen, design Pat: # 11,229, June 3, 1879. VERY Nice

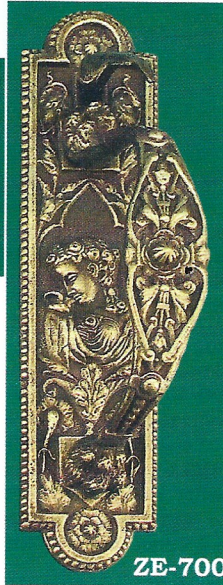

ZLW-198L

ZLW-198L Recreation of a Victorian thumb latch-lock. Case: 2 3/4" by 3"; face: 1 1/8" w by 4 5/8" t; 2" to the center of the backset. Great !

ZE-700 The only thumb latch shown in the 1870 R&E catalog. 9 1/4" long x 2 1/8" w Use lock ZLW-198L Very rare reproduction.

ZE-550 Larger back plate by R&E. Pat. Jan 25, 1870. Shown in 1870 catalog w/-ZE-38 knob but nice with all. 8" tall x 2 5/8" wide. Center of knob to center of the keyhole round bit: 2 3/4". Use antique lock or our L-101 lock.

ZE-700
